

ISLAND ESCAPE
CRUISES

A SMALL SHIP WITH BIG ADVENTURES, SHELTERED WATERS, BIG SHIP COMFORT AND EXCEPTIONAL INTIMACY.

Step aboard and explore the islands of Auckland's Hauraki Gulf Marine Park, cruising to remote villages on Great Barrier Island, visiting Kawau Island, New Zealand's playground for the rich and famous, and the stunning beaches and coves of The Coromandel Peninsular. Discover our magnificent cruising region, all within easy reach of New Zealand's bustling Auckland City.

Cruising aboard Island Passage with its state of the art design, stylish interior and a full range of sporting facilities means you can create a holiday that suits your needs. The Island Passage is perfect for a leisurely break from a hectic lifestyle. Within easy reach of your ship there are first class golf courses, world-class wineries and a multitude of water-based activities, or you may choose to relax with a good book in the library or laze on a steamer deck chair in the sun. You decide.

Evenings are a highlight of small ship cruising where the mood changes onboard to sunset cocktails, white linen dining and personal service as you enjoy excellent Pacific Cuisine by our chef. Enjoy stunning scenery as we anchor in the picturesque quiet bays of the Hauraki Gulf.

For the angler Island Passage is your large mother-ship that cruises around the great fishing spots of the Hauraki Gulf and further afield on request. Fully equipped with the best of fishing gear to cover from novice to professional. Our sport fishing expeditions are adventure orientated. Daily activities include helicopter expeditions, snorkelling, diving and much more... plus as much fishing as you can handle.
